4.06.16.03: The Hearing Officer may at any time voluntarily disqualify himself upon written notice to the ICB.

4.06.17:

4.06.17.01: Once retained and appointed, the Hearing Officer shall not communicate directly or indirectly with any Party or any person interested in the outcome of the proceeding, with respect to the merits of any case not concluded, except upon notice and opportunity for all parties to participate.

4.06.17.02: The Hearing Officer may impose and enforce sanctions against a Party who violates this Section.

4.06.18:

4.06.18.05: A natural person, who is a Party, may appear and be heard on his or her own behalf. Otherwise, only attorneys licensed to practice law in Illinois, as set forth in Section 4.06.18.01, shall represent any other individuals or entities in a Hearing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, a Party may use an interpreter if necessary at his or her own cost, unless payment of the cost is otherwise prescribed by law (e.g., ADA).

4.06.18.06: All attorneys appearing in Hearing proceedings before the Hearing Officer shall conform their conduct to the Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct (Article VIII of the Illinois Supreme Court Rules). In the event that an attorney's behavior substantially impairs the administration of the Hearing, the Hearing Officer may take the following actions in a progressive manner: substitution of written argument for oral argument, exclusion of the attorney from the Hearing; suspension or revocation of the attorney's right to appear before the Hearing Officer in that Disciplinary Matter. If the Hearing Officer takes any of the foregoing actions, it shall be done as a matter of record, and the Hearing Officer shall state for the record the specific reasons for the action.

4.06.18.07: Non-attorneys appearing in proceedings before the ICB shall be courteous and dignified, and shall maintain the decorum of the tribunal.

4.06.18.08: An attorney may withdraw his appearance and/or representation only upon motion and appropriate ruling by the Hearing Officer. 4.06.19:

4.06.19.01: In any Disciplinary Matter, SUPR may become a Party by filing an intervening petition setting forth that it has an interest in the adjudication of the Complaint and the subject matter thereof. 4.06.19.01.02: SUPR may be affected by the Final Decision; or 4.06.19.01.03: There is a public interest that may be affected by the Disciplinary Matter.

4.06.19.02: SUPR shall have all of the rights of an original Party, except that the Hearing Officer may, in his order allowing intervention, provide that SUPR shall be bound by orders previously entered, or by evidence previously received, that SUPR shall not raise issues that might more properly have been raised at an earlier stage of the proceeding, unless SUPR can show good cause for delay in intervening or as justice requires.

4.06.19.03: The decision of the Hearing Officer granting or denying the Complaint for Intervention shall be considered a final decision for purposes of reconsideration or appeal.

4.06.20:

4.06.20.01: Motions, both procedural and/or substantive may, in the case of the 4.06.21.03: The Hearing Officer may grant discovery to any Party on terms the Hearing Officer deems reasonable in his or her sole discretion, including but not limited to, extension of any Hearing date. In the event of a Respondent seeking discovery, the Respondent voluntarily waives any right to a Hearing within the 30 day period provided for by Section 4.04.02.

4.06.22: Upon motion by the Hearing Officer or any Party, the Hearing Officer may direct the parties to attend a Prehearing Conference by telephone call or other electronic means prior to Hearing at a date and time set by the Hearing Officer or at the commencement of the Hearing, in the Hearing Officer's sole discretion for the purposes of: simplifying the issues, limiting the issues, amending the Complaint (or response to the Complaint), if necessary, stipulating to facts and/or admissions, limiting the number of witnesses or evidence, mutually exchanging prepared testimony and exhibits, and any other matters that aid in the simplification of the Hearing. Any agreements, understandings, or conclusions made at a Prehearing Conference shall be in the form of a Prehearing Order, signed by the Hearing Officer and all parties or representatives involved in the Hearing, and shall become a part of the administrative record.

4.06.23: Any Disciplinary Matter may be disposed of by stipulation, agreed settlement, consent order, or default. Any settlement must be signed by the Hearing Officer and all parties involved. The settlement agreement shall be memorialized by a report and the Hearing Officer shall enter an Order dismissing the Disciplinary Matter with prejudice.

4.06.24: All hearings shall be conducted by the ICB at its main offices at 401 East Sangamon Avenue, Springfield, Illinois 62702 or at any other location as determined by the ICB, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties (including the ICB) and the Hearing Officer.

4.06.25: The sequence to be followed for all hearings is as follows:

4.06.25.02: Preliminary Matters - Motions; attempts to narrow issues or limit evidence.

4.06.25.03: Opening Statements - The Party bearing the burden of proof proceeds first.

4.06.25.05: Evidence and witnesses may be presented by the opposing Party.

4.06.25.06: Closing Statements - The Party bearing the burden of proof proceeds first, then the opposing Party, then a final reply by the Party bearing the burden of proof.

4.06.26: Upon motion by a Party or the Hearing Officer, a hearing may be postponed or continued for just cause. Written notice of any postponement or continuance shall be given to all parties within a reasonable time in advance of the previously scheduled Hearing date. All parties shall attempt to avoid unnecessary and repetitive postponements or continuances so that the Disciplinary Matter may be resolved expeditiously.

4.06.27: Until the conclusion of all Hearings, including those involving reconsideration or appeal, the then current status of the Respondent's Certification during the Disciplinary Matter (e.g., active, suspended, revoked, etc.), shall remain in full force and effect.

4.06.28: Any Party failing to appear at a hearing shall waive its right to present evidence. If the Hearing Officer determines that proper notice was given, he shall grant affirmative relief to the Party appearing.

4.06.29: The burden of proof, which includes both the burden of production and the burden of persuasion, rests with the Complainant.

4.06.30: Unless otherwise provided by law, the standard of proof for a Hearing under this Section shall be the preponderance of the evidence.

4.06.31: The Hearing Officer shall exclude immaterial, irrelevant, and repetitious evidence.

4.06.32: The Hearing Officer shall use his or her discretion in admitting or denying the admission of any evidence.

4.06.33: Any Party seeking to admit documents other than the originals may do so, provided the Party certifies that the copy is a true and correct copy of the original. The Party need not show that the original is unavailable.

4.06.34: The Hearing Officer may examine any witness.

4.06.35: Any Party or witness may be called as an adverse witness. Examination of the adverse witness shall be allowed as if under cross-examination. A witness called in good faith whose testimony surprises the Party who called the witness may examine that Party as if under cross-examination, and the testimony of the witness may be impeached by prior statements.

4.06.36: An official court reporter shall be engaged by the ICB to make and transcribe a stenographic record of the Hearing. The ICB will not provide copies of the transcript to the parties, but the parties may obtain copies from the official reporter upon payment of the appropriate costs. The ICB shall deliver or cause delivery of a copy of the transcript to the Hearing Officer at the ICB's cost as soon as possible after conclusion of a Hearing.

4.06.41: The Final Decision in a Disciplinary Matter shall be made by the Committee after review of the findings and recommendations of the Hearing Officer and the full and complete record of the Hearing. The Final Decision shall be rendered by a simple majority vote and may disregard part or all of the Hearing Officer's recommendations. Such Final Decision shall be in writing and served upon all parties and should be made within thirty (30) days of the date the Hearing Officer's Report and Recommendation was delivered to the Committee and otherwise shall be issued as soon as practicable after conclusion of the Hearing. The Final Decision may require any Party to the proceeding to pay part or all of the costs of the Hearing, including but not limited to: witness fees, court reporter fees, Hearing Officer's fees and costs (e.g., a transcript).

4.07.02: The effective date of such disciplinary action shall be set forth in the written order and the disciplinary action provided for therein shall not be tolled, but shall instead continue in full force and effect during any reconsideration/appeal process set forth in this Procedure Code.

4.07.03: Within thirty (30) days after service of the written order of disciplinary action, a Respondent may present to the Committee a motion in writing for reconsideration, which shall specify the particular grounds for rehearing, whereupon, the Director shall within thirty (30) days after the motion set the matter for hearing and provide a copy to the Committee and to the Respondent at his or her Address of Record. Such hearing date shall be set (and concluded) as expeditiously as possible.

4.07.04: At the time and place fixed in the notice, the Committee shall at a Hearing proceed to hear the reconsideration and the parties or their counsel shall be accorded ample opportunity to present any pertinent statements, testimony, evidence, and arguments. The Committee may continue the Hearing from time to time upon good cause shown by any Party. In case any Party, after receiving the notice of the Hearing, fails to appear, the request to reconsider shall be denied by default and may only be re-opened upon written request filed with the Committee within thirty (30) days, stating good cause. 4.08.02: At any time after the successful completion of a term of suspension or revocation of a Certificate, the Director may restore it to the ICB Credentialed Professional, upon the written recommendation of the Committee, unless after an investigation and a hearing the Committee determines that restoration is not in the Public's interest.

4.09: Self-Reporting:

4.09.01: Notwithstanding anything in the Procedure Code, Code of Ethics or otherwise, a ICB Credentialed Professional may self-report any violation by notifying the Director in writing stating the date(s) of the violation(s) and the nature of the violation(s).

4.09.02: While self-reporting a violation as described in Section 4.09.01 above will not act as a bar to finding of a violation of the Code of Ethics or disciplinary procedures set forth in this Procedure Code, such self-reporting may be taken by the Director, Hearing Officer and/or Executive Committee as a mitigating circumstance for purposes of the imposition of discipline, if any, including but not limited to, a lighter stipulated sentence.

4.10: Voluntary Surrender/Reinstatement:

4.10:01: Surrender: Notwithstanding anything in the Procedure Code, Code of Ethics or otherwise, an ICB Credentialed Professional may surrender his or her Certificate at any time.
